Subject: Bank Of Wal-Mart

Dear Sheila Bar,

Please help see that Wal-mart is not given a dangerous concentration of power. Their entrance into the banking field only further erodes the community businesses that our country was founded on & made strong by.

Their record of lack of health care for their employees, lack of dignity shown to them, etc. already makes this type of business a net loss to our communities.

Since they are currently seeking a senior manager to oversee new strategic initiatives their stance that they do not want to get involved in entering full-service banking seems to belie the facts.

Don't be bamboozled.

I know you will use your good judgment in refusing to allow this to happen.

Thanks for your time,

Jeanne Nearhoff
